A Prayer of Confession.

Almighty and most merciful God, I acknowledge and confess that I have sinned against Thee in thought, word and deed. I have not loved Thee with all my heart and soul, with all my mind and strength. I have not loved my neighbor as myself. I pray Thee to stir up within me a will to fight against my besetting sins, that, with Thy help I may overcome them. Cleanse me from every mean desire and save me from every evil way, that I may be more worthy to be called a child of Thine. Amen.

Aids to Private Devotion in the Church

Make it the rule to be in your place before the service begins, so as to have time for spiritual preparation. Avoid all unnecessary conversation or activity. Collect your thoughts, and in silent prayer put yourself into the mood for worship.

Sentence Prayers for Silent Worship.

The Lord is in His holy temple; let all the earth keep silence before Him.

Heavenly Father, be with me now and teach me. Show me my sins, O Lord, but give me grace to leave them.

O God, help me and make me Thine. Give me Thy Holy Spirit, that I may learn of Christ, and be Thine, as Christ is Thine.

My Father, teach me more and more to enter into the spirit of Jesus. Give me grace to hear Thy voice and to do Thy will, even as He did it.

Make me faithful, O my Father, in my place and work. Teach me to forget myself that I may find Thee.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

Prayers for Spiritual Concentration.

O God, the source of all pure desires and holy affections; give me now a quiet mind, and a reverent and devout heart, that I may worthily worship Thee at this time, and think how I am living, and resolve to live better. Amen.

Almighty God, from whom every good prayer cometh, deliver me now from coldness of heart and wanderings of mind, that with steadfast thought and kindled desire I may worship Thee in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer of Confession.

Almighty and most merciful God, I acknowledge and confess that I have sinned against Thee in thought, word and deed. I have not loved Thee with all my heart and soul, with all my mind and strength. I have not loved my neighbor as myself. I pray Thee to stir up within me a will to fight against my besetting sins, that, with Thy help I may overcome them. Cleanse me from every mean desire and save me from every evil way, that I may be more worthy to be called a child of Thine. Amen.

A Renewal of the Church Covenant.

In the presence of God and men, I now heartily confess Jesus Christ, as Master and Lord, and solemnly reconsecrate myself, as His disciple, to the service of the Father Almighty whom He has revealed. And trusting in God's spirit to confirm and strengthen me in all goodness, I will strive to do His holy will, and to walk with my fellow-men, everywhere, in the love and peace of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Vocations and Christian Endeavor.

Our society offers a limited number of positions—as field-secretary of a State union or as worker in the United Society of Christian Endeavor. These are posts of great importance, calling for the very highest qualities of a gospel minister and for the truest missionary spirit. But in addition to this, Christian Endeavor furnishes a training which aids one immensely in the work of any calling. It cultivates fidelity. It gives the religious basis. It trains one in the management of groups of workers, in sympathy, tact, and understanding. It gives one the power to use one's tongue effectively. It develops ingenuity. In many ways, and some of the most valuable, it trains the worker. More and more Endeavorers every year are becoming ministers, pastors' assistants, missionaries, evangelists, Y. M. C. A. secretaries, directors of religious education, secretaries of church federations, and laborers in other branches of Christ's kingdom, while the fields of politics, of commerce, of the learned professions, of the arts, and of all other kinds of honorable activities include Christian Endeavorers to-day among their most successful and useful men and women. This is exactly as it should be, and what might have been expected.

danger was averted."

After being nine hours in the hands of the soldiers Dr. Price was released, and was able to make his way to Nanking University, where other refugees had concentrated.

In Little-Known Malabar.

FOR most of us Malabar is but a name. For others it connotes "somewhere in India." But few of us know that it is a most beauti-
